PÊCHE

ÉTANG de GAS DIMANCHE

A detailed illustration of a rainbow trout jumping out of the water. The fish is shown in profile, facing right, with its mouth wide open. A fishing hook with a yellow and black striped lure is positioned just above the fish's mouth, as if it has just been caught or is about to be. The fish's scales are rendered in shades of green, blue, and pink. The background is plain white.
